

Neurobiology of schizophrenia and psychosis meeting 2024

Wednesday 20th November 2024, 13.00 – 17.05 (UK time)

Online via MS Teams

Join us for our 4th Annual symposium on State of the Art Understanding of the neurobiology of Psychosis and Schizophrenia with world leading experts in the field

UK time	EST
13.00	08.00	Welcome and introduction Dr Musa Sami (Chair)
13.05	08.05	What do epidemiological approaches tell us about neurobiology in schizophrenia and the psychotic disorders Professor Robin Murray, King's College London
13.40	08.40	The value of neurocomputational modelling in schizophrenia and psychosis Professor Paul Fletcher, University of Cambridge
14.15	09.15	A new angle on neuroimmune mechanisms of psychosis Professor Bill Deakin, University of Manchester
14.50	09.50	Screen break
15.05	10.05	Undertaking Schizophrenia and Psychosis research in Lower and Middle Income countries Professor Saeed Farooq, University of Keele
15.40	10.40	What does 22q11 syndrome tell us about schizophrenia Professor Carrie Bearden, University of California, Los Angeles
16.15	11.15	Panel Discussion All participants joined by Prof Peter Liddle and Dr Musa Sami
16.50	11.50	Vote of thanks Professor Peter Liddle, University of Nottingham, UK
17.05	12.00	Close

To register and purchase a ticket, please click here

Ticket payment is via debit/credit card taken during the registration process. Please note once tickets are purchased no refunds will be made and tickets are non-transferable

If you are a Notts Healthcare employee, and you wish to make payment by internal transfer, please email the IMH Events team for registration instructions.

For more information visit the Institute of Mental Health website, or just scan the QR code

